A NEW MANDATE FOR THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CANADIAN RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE

Montreal, August 22, 2022 – The Administrative Council of the Canadian Religious Conference (CRC) is pleased to announce the renewal for three years of the term of Father Alain Ambeault, CSV, as Executive Director.

In this regard, here is the statement of our President, Sister Francine Landreville, CND:

"Dear Sister,
Dear Brother,

Father Alain Ambeault joined the CRC as Executive Director in August 2019.

As we looked back on his service over the past three years, we could see how much he cared about the relevance of the CRC's mission. While the following is not exhaustive, this has been particularly evident in the planning of activities for the members over the past three years, in the reorganization of the services to be rendered by the CRC staff in order to better serve the mission of the CRC, and in his ability to work in harmony with a large number of organizations related to the CRC in various ways.

We thank Father Ambeault most warmly for agreeing to begin a second term as Executive Director in the next few days and for continuing to serve our organization in such a wonderful way".

About CRC

The Canadian Religious Conference is a network that brings together the leaders of 240 Catholic congregations of women and men religious in Canada. The CRC's mission is to encourage its members to live fully their vocation in following Christ and to support them in their prophetic witness to justice and peace in a Canadian context.
